

STUDENT SPRING 2013 SIGN UP

GREENMOORE GARDENS

Winter Share Information

Hello from the Greenmoore Gardens Crew!

We are excited to be starting on our second semester of our Farm-to-Student CSA share this winter. Shares will run from the week of Jan 7 to the week of Apr 22, and there will be no pick up during the week of spring break. We are expanding our student shares to have two pick up options. The Tuesday pick up at Irvings will be quick and convenient, with a pre-boxed share you can just grab and go. The Friday pick up will be market style at the farm, where you can choose what goes into your share box.

We will also be planning some events this semester out at the farm for our student members so that you will have the opportunity to see exactly where your vegetables are coming from and to be involved in the process. We'll have a farm tour, harvest day and a cooking class, giving out some recipes and showing you easy ways of using all the vegetables in your share box.

We have set up our student share to be an affordable and convenient way of having access to fresh produce all semester. You can buy local, eat healthy and support an organic farm!

We are expecting spots to fill up fast, so sign up now. Either mail in this sign up form or visit us at www.greenmooregardens.com/students
